

Sermon Notes for 9/27:

Matthew 13:52-53—And he said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has become a disciple in the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.” When Jesus had finished these parables, he left that place.

“... the search for roots in times of uprootedness. It is the being’s longing for innocence, beauty, and simplicity in times of sophistication, shifting aesthetic standards, and complexity. It is the search for that vantage point from which both complexity and simplicity can make sense, coexist, and complement one another.” (Alexandra Dumitrescu “Metamodernism. A Few Characteristics”)
